

APPLICATION FOR COMMUNITY HOUSING DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATION (CHDO) CERTIFICATION

The National Affordable Housing Act of 1990 (the Act) created the HOME Investment Partnerships Program (HOME). The Act's objectives include promoting partnerships between states, local governments, and nonprofit organizations to expand the supply of decent, safe, sanitary, and affordable housing. The Act requires that each Participating Jurisdiction (PJ) set aside funds for "community housing development organizations" (CHDOs) as a specific kind of community based nonprofit housing organization defined by the HOME Final Rule (24 CFR Part 92). CHDOs have a distinct and special status within the HOME Program which have, among its purposes, the provision of decent housing that is affordable to low-income and moderate-income persons. Each Participating Jurisdiction (PJ) must set-aside at least 15% of its total HOME award each year for projects that will be owned, developed, or sponsored by CHDOs.

At a high level, the CHDO definition can be grouped into four key elements. To be recognized as a CHDO, an organization must be:

- A legally incorporated tax-exempt nonprofit organization;
- An independent organization free of undue control by for-profit or governmental entities;
- Accountable to the low-income community it serves; and
- Capable of undertaking the development of affordable housing.

The evaluation of whether an organization can be designated as a CHDO always takes place in the context of awarding funds from the CHDO set-aside—that is, in consideration of a housing project that is being or is likely to be funded. The HOME Final Rule requires that a PJ certify that an organization meets the CHDO definition "each time it commits funds to the organization."

The evaluation of an organization's capacity is closely connected to the organization's role as an "owner," "developer," or "sponsor" of affordable housing. Those terms are carefully defined in the HOME regulation at §92.300(a)(2)(6) and require that the CHDO be solely in charge of the project.

This application for CHDO Certification was developed to assist the Pennsylvania Department of Economic and Community Development (DCED) in its capacity as PJ in evaluating whether an organization can be certified as a CHDO. It is intended to accompany an application for project funding and, alone, does not provide all information the DCED will need to evaluate and underwrite the project itself. CHDOs applying to Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency (PHFA) for PennHOMES funds associated with a Low-Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) project must submit this application for certification to DCED for review after they receive a reservation of PHFA funds.*
