

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT

BUILDING AND STRENGTHENING COMMUNITIES

Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds strengthen Pennsylvania communities by assisting with housing improvements, building suitable living environments, expanding economic opportunities geared to low- and moderate-income individuals, and improving critical community health and welfare infrastructure.

CDBG funds enable communities to effectively address many of their needs, such as infrastructure, housing, and community facilities.

WHO'S ELIGIBLE?

CDBG consists of two components for eligible applicants:

- Annual funding to designated municipalities through the formula-based state entitlement program, which includes counties, cities, boroughs, and townships in rural and nonmetropolitan areas of Pennsylvania.
- Competitive project funding available to eligible local governments set aside for critical infrastructure or revitalization projects.

USES

CDBG funds can be used for:

- Housing rehabilitation
- Public services
- Community facilities
- Infrastructure improvement (water, sewer, storm water)
- Streets and sidewalks
- Economic development
- Planning

For more information including detailed guidelines and statutory and regulatory requirements, visit dced.pa.gov/cdbg.

CDBG funding is provided by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and administered by DCED.

05/11/2022