Section I – Introduction

The Marketing to Attract Tourists Program provides funding to support and develop programs to support international tourism, sports marketing, outdoor recreation, and cultural attractions.

Eligible projects are defined in Section II of these guidelines. Grants are awarded to those projects which, in the judgment of the Pennsylvania Tourism Office, comply with the provisions of these program guidelines and meet all requirements of the Department of Community and Economic Development's (DCED) Single Application for Assistance. Applications received under this program may also be considered for funding under other programs administered by DCED.

Section II – Eligibility

Non-profit organizations with a significant interest in the development of tourism products that provide a visitor experience to a tourist region, destination and/or attractions are eligible to apply. Funds may be used to support events related to the above programs. The development of marketing, advertising and public relations campaigns.

A primary goal of the program is to promote overnight stays. Applicants should, as part of the project narrative, explain how their project will meet this goal.

Section III – Application Process

A. General

1. Project applications must be submitted using the DCED Electronic Single Application for Assistance via www.esa.dced.state.pa.us. Electronic applications will be accepted throughout the fiscal year.
2. An applicant must follow the detailed instructions for completing the DCED Electronic Single Application for Assistance. The narrative must include:
 - Description of applicant, including general purpose or mission statement.
 - Identification of the need for assistance and the organization's project goals.
 - Identification of measurable outcomes including over night stays, public relations metrics, and attendance results of marketing campaigns to attract visitors, i.e. visitors, room nights, etc.
 - Project schedule with key milestones and dates.
 - Documentation to support projected budget costs. Note: A detailed scope of services must be submitted with the application for any consulting, legal, or accounting fees included in the project budget.
 - DCED reserves the right to request additional information, explanation, clarification, or revision of funding requests.

B. Selection Process

1. Applications will be reviewed and grants awarded throughout the fiscal year. Projects will be selected based upon whether they meet the eligibility criteria and thoroughly demonstrate the project goals, objectives, and outcomes.
2. Successful applicants will be notified by the Pennsylvania Tourism Office by letter. The applicant will receive a contract and a payment requisition form to be signed and returned to DCED. All contracts are subject to availability of funds and subject to the applicant providing all information required by DCED. The applicant must maintain full and accurate records with respect to the project. DCED must have complete access to such records (including invoices for goods and services and other relevant data and records), as well as the right to inspect all project work. The applicant will promptly furnish all data, reports, contracts, documents, and other information requested by DCED. Successful applicants are required to submit a final report that provides an overview of the completed activities and the measureable outcomes.
3. Funds will be directly deposited in grantee's bank account via an Automatic Clearing House (ACH) transfer of funds in accordance with the grant contract.
4. Contracts funded with commonwealth funds totaling $100,000 and over are required to have a Project Audit performed. The Project Audit must be done in accordance with DCED Audit Guidelines. For contracts funded with commonwealth funds totaling less than $100,000, a Grant Close-out Report (GCR) must be completed. Both the Audit Guidelines and GCR forms and instructions can be found at www.newPA.com/compliance.
5. Organizations that are not compliant with audit or closeout report requirements for prior contracts with DCED are ineligible to receive additional financial assistance from DCED until such audit or closeout report requirements are met.
6. Unsuccessful applicants must submit a new application to be considered for funding in the following fiscal year.

Section IV – Commonwealth Branding

- A. The Pennsylvania Tourism Office has developed a distinctive brand to position Pennsylvania as a top tourism destination. All promotional and marketing materials must include the commonwealth's branded logo that includes a link to the state's tourism web site visitPA.com. Successful applicants are also required to have a direct link to visitPA.com on the home page of their web site. Logos can be found at www.newPA.com.

- B. All public relations/announcements must include mention of the partnership with the commonwealth, i.e., joint press releases, signage, programs, invitations to participate in events in a public capacity, etc. DCED will provide appropriate language.

Section V – Limitations and Penalties

- A. An applicant may not make or authorize any substantial change to an approved project without first obtaining DCED's consent in writing.
- B. If the full amount of the grant or contract is not required for the project, the unused portion shall be returned to the DCED.
- C. Failure to comply with these guidelines may result in penalties, including repayment of funds with interest.
- D. When a project is funded, the recipient must place the grant funds in an interest bearing account. Any interest earned on invested grant funds must be returned to the commonwealth.
