

2023 Emergency Solutions Grant Award Recipients

Applicant	Funding Award	Service Area	Project Description
Central Susquehanna Opportunities, Inc.	$300,000.	Northumberland, Montour, Columbia	Central Susquehanna Opportunities applied for a regional project to serve Northumberland, Montour, and Columbia Counties to deliver homelessness prevention, rapid rehousing, and street outreach services. The also applied on behalf of their sub-recipient Gatehouse to support operations of their emergency shelter program.
City of Allentown	$300,000.	Lehigh, Northampton	City of Allentown is applying on behalf of their sub-recipients New Bethany Ministries, Third Street Alliance, Community Action of Lehigh Valley, Family Promise of Lehigh Valley, Lehigh Conference of Churches, Valley Youth House. Funding will be used to provide emergency shelter services and operational support, homelessness prevention, rapid rehousing, and street outreach services.
Monroe County Commissioners	$300,000.	Monroe, Pike	This project funds emergency shelter options offered by Stroudsburg Wesleyan Church, Family Promise of the Poconos, and Street2Feet. It also supports rapid re-housing and homelessness prevention programs run by Family Promise of the Poconos, as well as street outreach efforts carried out by Street2Feet.
Cumberland County Commissioners	$260,000.	Cumberland, Perry	These funds will be used to support three sub-recipients in the county; Community CARES, Safe Harbour, and Domestic Violence Services of Cumberland. All Emergency Solutions Grant activities will be administered.
Center for Community Action	$490,000.	Bedford, Fulton, Huntingdon, Mifflin, Juniata, Blair, Cambria	Center for Community Action is applying for a regional project covering Bedford, Fulton, Huntingdon, Juniata, Mifflin, Blair, and Cambria Counties to deliver homelessness prevention, and rapid rehousing services. Center for Community Action also applied on behalf of their sub-recipient Women's Help Center who will deliver street outreach and emergency shelter services in Cambria County.
Clinton County Housing Coalition, Inc.	$210,000.	Clinton, Lycoming	Funds will be used by the Clinton County Housing Coalition and one STEP, Inc. in Clinton and Lycoming counties. Funds will be in used for emergency shelter operations, essential services and a portion of kitchen renovations for a shelter. And RR and HP funds will be used for rental assistance.
Centre County Commissioners	$200,000.	Centre	Funds will be used to support subrecipients Centre County Adult Services and Housing Transitions, Inc. The activities will be used for staff salaries and help prevent the homeless from losing their home and to support the operation of a shelter in the county.
Franklin County Commissioners	$190,000.	Franklin, ADAMS	This project funds rapid re-housing programs provided by South Central Community Action Program (SCCAP) and Waynesboro Community and Human Services (WCHS). It will also support SCCAP's emergency shelter and WCHS's homelessness prevention program and use of the HMIS software system. In addition, the County of Franklin's Community Connections division will use the funds to engage in street outreach.
Union Snyder Community Action Agency	$150,000.	Union, Snyder	This project funds Union Snyder Community Action Agency's rapid rehousing, homelessness prevention, emergency shelter options, and use of the HMIS software system.
Schuylkill County Commissioners	$140,000.	Schuylkill	This project funds emergency shelter options offered by Schuylkill Hope Center and Servants to All. Servants to All will also be engaging in street outreach and running a homelessness prevention program with these funds.
New Hope Ministries, Inc.	$125,000.	York, Cumberland, Adams	New Hope Ministries will deliver homelessness prevention activities within York, Cumberland, and Adams Counties. New Hope Ministries was also awarded Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) funds to collect and enter data into their Continuums of Care HMIS database.
Somerset County Commissioners	$125,000.	Somerset	Somerset County is applying on behalf of their sub-recipient, The Next Step Center to provide homelessness prevention and rapid rehousing services.
Wayne County Commissioners	$70,000.	Wayne	This project funds rapid re-housing and homelessness prevention programs offered by Wayne County, as well as emergency shelter options.
Carbon County Commissioners	$60,000.	Carbon	This project funds Carbon County Action Committee for Human Services' rapid re-housing and homelessness prevention programs. In addition, it will support Family Promise of Carbon County providing emergency shelter.
Lawrence County Social Services, Inc.	$1,500,000.	Lawrence, Greene, Armstrong, Fayette, Beaver, Crawford, Venango, Warren, Forest, Cameron, Elk, Potter, McKean	Lawrence County Social Services is applying in partnership with 12 sub-recipients to deliver all activities within 13 counties in western Pennsylvania. Sub-recipients are ARISE, Armstrong Community Action Agency, Community Development Program of Beaver County, Crawford County Mental Health Awareness Program, City Mission-Living Stones, Inc., Connect Inc. Fayette County Community Action Agency, Greene County Human Services, HAVIN, Northern Tier Community Action Corp, Venango County Department of Human Services, and Warren-Forest Economic Opportunities Commission.
Butler County Commissioners	$250,000.	Butler	Butler County applied on behalf of four sub-recipients; The Care Center, Catholic Charities, Center for Community Resources, and Glade Run Lutheran. Services to be delivered are rapid rehousing, homelessness Prevention, and Emergency Shelter operations.
McKean County Commissioners	$160,000.	McKean	Funds will be used in all eligible categories by subrecipients a Partnership in Housing and YWCA of Bradford. Emergency shelter funds will be used to support the operations of a homeless shelter, street outreach activities are used for the essential services and case management. Rapid rehousing and homelessness prevention will help homeless households and prevent homelessness within the county.
Mercer County Commissioners	$135,000.	Mercer	This project funds the rapid re-housing and homelessness prevention programs, as well as emergency shelter options, provided by Aware, Inc., a victim provider agency serving individuals and families experiencing domestic violence.

Indiana County Commissioners	$100,000.	Indiana	This project funds Indiana County Community Action Programs, Inc.'s rapid re-housing program.
Pennsylvania Coalition Against Domestic Violence	$750,000.	Statewide	Pennsylvania Coalition Against Domestic Violence (PCADV) is applying on behalf of 13 of their membership organizations; Centre Safe, Family Services Incorporated, Community Action Partnership - Lancaster, Lutheran Settlement House, Women's Resources of Monroe, Safe Journey, Schuylkill Women in Crisis, Victim Services Inc., Victim Outreach Intervention Center, Women's Center and Shelter of Pittsburgh, Women Against Abuse, SafeNet Domestic Violence. Funding will provide Rapid Rehousing, Homelessness Prevention, Emergency Shelter, Administrations support.
Montgomery County Office of Housing and Community Development	$300,000.	Montgomery	Montgomery County Office of Housing and Community Development is applying on behalf of their sub-recipients Access Services, Family Services, Resources for Human Development, and The Salvation Army to provide emergency shelter operation
City of Lancaster	$108,068.	Lancaster	The City of Lancaster was awarded funds on behalf of their sub-recipients Tenfold to renovate their emergency shelter which will repair their elevator making their services more accessible for handicapped households.
Bucks County Commissioners	$108,000.	Bucks	Funds will be used for one sub recipient, The Bucks County Opportunity Council to provide housing search and navigation support through their housing locators.